

Admin Acceptance Criteria

AC1 – Manage Layouts

Given: that the admin is on Design then Layouts.

When: the admin adds, edits, or reorders layout blocks.

Then: the changes must display correctly on the storefront without breaking the design.

AC2 – Manage Banners

Given: that the admin is on Design then Banners.

When: the admin adds or edits a banner.

Then: the banner must appear in its correct location and scale properly on the store.

AC3 – Edit Pages

Given: that the admin is on Catalog then Information.

When: the Admin updates text, images, or SEO of a page.

Then: the updated page content must display correctly on the frontend.

AC4 – Update Store Logo

Given: that the admin is on System then Settings and then Image Tab.

When: the admin uploads a new logo.

Then: the logo must appear correctly in the store header.

AC5 – Update Favicon

Given: that the admin is on System then Settings and then Image Tab.

When: the admin uploads a new favicon.

Then: the favicon must update in the browser tab.

AC6 – Update Theme Settings

Given: that the admin is on Extensions then Extensions and then Themes.

When: the admin changes theme colors, fonts, or layout settings.

Then: the changes must apply consistently across all pages.

AC7 – Check Page Design Consistency

Given: that the admin opens any page on the storefront.

When: the admin reviews the page.

Then: all elements such as colors, fonts, spacing, headers, footers, and blocks must be consistent with the theme.

AC8 – Verify Banners and Content Blocks

Given: that the admin opens a page with banners or modules.

When: the admin reviews them.

Then: all modules and banners must load and display correctly.

AC9 – Preview Changes Before Publishing

Given: that the admin is editing layouts, banners, or pages.

When: the admin previews changes.

Then: the admin can see the updated content correctly before publishing.

Customer Acceptance Criteria

AC10– Confirm Responsive Design

Given: that the Customer opens the store on desktop, tablet, or mobile.

When: The Customer navigates pages.

Then: all elements must scale correctly with no overlaps or broken layout.

AC11 – Test Language Switching

Given: that the store supports multiple languages.

When: The Customer switches the language.

Then: all translatable content must update correctly and maintain layout.

AC12 – Test Currency Switching

Given: that the store supports multiple currencies.

When: The Customer switches the currency.

Then: all prices must update correctly across pages.

AC13 – Navigate Featured Content Easily

Given: that the Customer is on a page with featured content or banners.

When: The Customer browses through featured items.

Then: The Customer can easily find promotions and highlighted content.

AC14 – Access Contact Information Quickly

Given: that the Customer is on the storefront.

When: The Customer navigates to About Us or Contact Us pages.

Then: The Customer can access store information or support quickly.

AC15 – Read Content Clearly on All Devices

Given: that the Customer is on desktop, tablet, or mobile.

When: The Customer reads textual content.

Then: all text must be clear and readable without formatting issues.

